THE NEW FIREFIGHTERS' PENSION SCHEME 2006

Death Grant and Balance of Guaranteed Pension Nomination form.

Death in Service

In the event that you should die in service as a member of the New Firefighters' Pension Scheme 2006, the Northamptonshire Fire and Rescue Service would pay a death grant, normally equivalent to three times your pensionable pay at date of death. You can make your wishes known to the Fire and Rescue Service, at any time, by completing the nomination form attached to these notes.

Death in Retirement

If you die after retirement but before having received at least five years of pension instalments, the balance of the instalments you have not received will be converted to a lump sum. By completing the nomination form you would make your wishes known to the Fire and Rescue Service in respect of this payment, too.

Northamptonshire Fire and Rescue Service's Discretion

Northamptonshire Fire and Rescue Service has absolute discretion as to the payment of the death grant or balance of pension. It will decide on the most appropriate recipient(s) but will take into account your wishes.

The fact that the Fire and Rescue Service has absolute discretion as to the recipient of the death grant or balance of guaranteed pension means that the payment would, under current tax rules, be exempt from Inheritance Tax. This would be the case even if the Fire and Rescue Service decide that, in the circumstances, the payment should be made to the legal personal representatives of the firefighter responsible for the administration of his/her estate.

Making a Nomination

You can complete the attached nomination form at any time. Or you need not complete it at all. If you do decide to complete and submit it, please note the following:

- you can nominate a single person or several persons; if you nominate more than one beneficiary, indicate the percentage of death grant or guaranteed pension balance that you wish each nominee to receive and ensure that the total of all nominations is 100%;
- you will be sent an acknowledgement of receipt of the form to your home address unless you request otherwise in a covering letter – it is recognised the information you give could be "sensitive" and should be treated as confidential;
- if any nominee has a change of address, please ensure the Fire and Rescue Service is kept informed;
- if your circumstances or wishes change, you must tell the Fire and Rescue Service right away otherwise their decision, based on the nomination you gave them, may not be what you would have wanted; you can change or cancel the form at any time.
